John Gorham Died Yesterday of Neuralgia of the Heart.

The death of John Gorham occurred at is home on Central street on Wednes day morning at an early hour. Mr. Gor-ham had an attack of the grip two weeks ago and neuralgia of the heart soon decloped, from which there was no relief. Never strong, it was more than he could endure. Last December Mr. Gorham received an injury in his knee while on the street at Brattleboro, by a fall on a de-fective sidewalk, and from that time be had not been as well as usual, this giving him trouble much of the time. Mr. Gorham had been south for his health twice in former years, and also had been in the West, but they never sold their home here and every time after being away returned here for their home, John Alpheus Gorbain was born in Canada Alpheus Gorbam was born in Canada July 24, 1849. In later years he came to Vermont and married Miss Emma Parish of Northfield Jan. 10, 1882. Mr. Gorbam was a cabinet maker and ma-chinist. He was a member of the Odd Fellow and Masonic fraternities. was also a member of the old Christian church of this place before its union with the Congregational church. Deceased is survived by his wife, one sister in-Worcester, Mass., and another in Broome, Canada, and two brothers in Wisconsin The funeral will be held in the Methodist church Saturday at I o'clock and interment will be in Riverbank cemetery in Stowe. The Masonic fraternity will take charge of the funeral.

Miss Esther Ham came from Smith college on Wednesday to pass her vaca-tion with her parents, Principal and Mrs. E. G. Ham. Miss Helen Blanchard is also home from the same place for a few days' stay with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Blanchard.

Mrs. C. J. Dyke, a teacher in Tun-bridge, came on Wednesday for her vacation with friends here.

Mrs. H. V. Fletcher went to Randolph Center Wednesday to see Mrs. Evans. who has lost her daughter, Miss Mary Evans, by tuberculosis. Miss Evans had reached the age of 24 years and had been ill for several months. She was a grad-mate of the normal school at the Center, instead of this school, as was formerly understood. Deceased is survived by her mother; one brother, Bishop Evans, and a sister, Miss Lettie Evans,

Mr. George, who has long been ill, is now in a very critical state and is under the care of a trained nurse, Richmond Skinner of Royalton.

Mrs. Ellen Huntington came from Newport Wednesday, where she has been passing the winter with her sons, and will take up her residence here in her house on School street for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Amsden of Barpard came last week to visit Mrs. Ams den's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. At wood, the latter having been ill with the grip for a couple of weeks. Mrs. J. H. Williams is now taking care of her and t is thought she is improving. Thirty-three men met at the Randolph rest room on Tuesday night and effected an organization called the Randolph AND INDIGESTION Community Chatauqua, for the purpose of giving a week's entertainment in the ummer, open to all who will buy season or single tickets. It is hoped that the week will be in August and in connec-tion with this or nearly the same time there will be an effort made to observe old home week in Randolph. The officers of the organization are: President, Rev. ommittee, E. T. Salisbury; chairman o the grounds committee, Rev. J. H. Thompson. The meetings are expected to be held at the parish house later.
